

About us

Rue de Vin – «the wine road» (fr.)

Rue de Vin is a Russian wine-trading company. Rue de Vin was founded in 2016. The goal of our company is to introduce consumers to unknown wines from different countries. Currently the company's portfolio consists of wines from Italy. But Rue de Vin has a goal of making known the wines from other regions, such as Europe, America, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand.

Rue de Vin is creating own exclusive products too. These are the Admare sparkling wines, the table wines La Marabecca, and the Rue de Vin collection.

Our company participated in several major international exhibitions of alcoholic beverages as a buyer. We already imported more than 100 thousands of bottles of two suppliers from Italy on an exclusive basis. The company's office is located in the center of Moscow. We also have a class «A» warehouse for 900 thousands of bottles.

We conclude contracts with flexible approach to each partner. At the moment we have established contacts with HoReCa and boutiques. There are preliminary agreements with several resellers and the two largest retail chains in Russia. We are working to increase the number of retail points daily.

Our main advantages are professionalism, reliability and an individual approach to every client. Rue de Vin's team is made up of professionals with many years of experience in wine sales.

We would like you to join our wine road!
